Dear Honorable Jared C. Bennett,

I have reason to believe that defendants of this case, Sonia Sotomayor, Elena Kagan, and Ketanji Brown Jackson, who are current Justice of the Supreme Court of the United States, broke their oath of office by voting against hearing the Randal J Brunson's case docket #22-380 of the US Supreme Court.

This case, docket #22-380 is about Pres. Biden, V.P. Harris and then V.P. Mike Pence, and 385 members of congress who thwarted the proposed investigation into the allegations that there was interference in the 2020 Presidential election.

I urge you to give these defendants an opportunity to explain and defend themselves as to why they thought it was important to vote against the hearing of the said Randal J Brunson case.

Thank You
